The Good Stuff Flower Farm/Field of Flowers Venue

Booking

A non-refundable deposit of 50% per booking is due at the time of booking in order to reserve the event date. The remainder is due 24 hours prior to the scheduled session(s); photographers will receive a separate invoice for the remainder.

Policy

The Good Stuff Flower Farm / Field of Flowers Venue is not responsible for any injuries obtained during use. Client acknowledges responsibility for any damage or loss to the Farm or Venue caused by misuse/damage/vandalism by client or guests. No smoking, no food or beverages in the flowers or woods (only allowed at Venue tables). All trash must be picked up and placed in proper receptacles. Client agrees that restitution must be made within 30 days of damage in form of cleaning, replacement equipment or compensations, as determined by the cost to replace by a professional. Client is allowed to style the photo locations to suit their needs but keep in mind flowers are tender and easily damaged.

Absolutely NO PETS of any kind unless PRE-APPROVED by owners of The Good Stuff Flower Farm/Field of Flowers Venue. We are animal lovers but must secure our animals before ANY other animal is allowed on property.

Cancellations / Late Arrivals

Client acknowledges that any request for a date change not related to weather must be made at least two weeks prior to the scheduled event. Change of date is subject to the farm/venue/flower availability. The non-refundable deposit will be transferred to the next available date agreed upon by both parties.

Any client arriving late will still end their session on the time agreed upon at the time of booking. Should additional time be needed, client will have the option to extend their time at the hourly rate booked depending on availability. If the Farm or Venue is not available due to unexpected issues or illness, a full refund will be offered to the client.
